Fined $168 plus costs

To an 18 year old youth in North Wilmington Friday the Thirteenth is a day to remember.

He was caught, at 2:30 a.m., in the act of maliciously damaging a store. Sgt. Jay Palmer and Officer Jimmy Rooney caught him in his act of destruction.

Friday morning he was in Woburn Court. Justice Cullen fined him $135, plus costs, which came to a total of a $168 fine.

Tax rate is $68.40

Assessor Anthony Krzminski set the tax rate, Tuesday, for Fiscal Year 1977 at $68.40. This rate represents an increase of $4.40 over that of 1976.

The Supplemental Cherry Sheet, which was released just a few days ago, from the Department of Taxation of Massachusetts returned the sum of $262,466 to Wilmington. This, according to Mr. Krzminski, saved $2 on the tax rate for Wilmington property owners.

Both school costs and general government costs are increased, for the coming year. School costs, on the tax rate will be $42.08. In the year just past it was $40.95. General government will be $26.32. It was $23.05.

The tax rate is based on a valuation of $147,131,870, which is an increase of $3,552,615 in property valuation in one year, in Wilmington.

The total amount of money to be raised is $15,023,728, and of this $4,959,908 is coming from Receipts and Available Funds. This represents a drop, in that in last figures over $5 million was available. The Town of Wilmington had a drop of $103,306 in receipts and available funds in one year.

Wilmington played very good ball

The Wilmington Rotary Club played a very good game, Monday, in a baseball game against Wakefield Rotary. So reports Wilmington Rotary President Ray McNamara.

But they (Wakefield) won. The score was 14 to 4.

Fred D. Cain was the Wilmington pitcher, and Fred gave up only one walk.

It is reported that this was because the Wakefield players always hit the ball, the first time it came over the plate.

Vaccines to be available

The Massachusetts Medical Society has announced support of an immunization program against A Victoria flu, and a limited program against A-Swine flu. The Wilmington Department of Health is preparing to participate in such programs.

The Medical Society reports that an outbreak of A-Swine influenza is unlikely, and in Massachusetts it is "extremely unlikely." The flu season in the southern hemisphere is over, and A-Swine flu was not detected.

Massachusetts can anticipate an outbreak of A Victoria flu this winter.

Fourth term for Sterling Morris

In a special meeting, Monday night, the Wilmington Board of Selectmen elected Sterling Morris to another three year term of duty. It was the fourth time that Morris has been elected to serve three years as Town Manager of Wilmington, a record of longevity for this town. He was first named Manager in 1967.

His election was opposed by Selectman Danny Gillis. Mr. Gillis had a number of reasons, one of which was the Burlington Dam problem, which, Gillis declared, the selectmen had to solve. Mr. Gillis declared there was no personal enmity. He had no alternative name to offer, for appointment.

Four selectmen voted for Morris.

Stahl promotion Beatrice Foods

Louis E. Stahl, president of Beatrice Foods, Chemical Division, Wilmington, has been elected a corporate president of Beatrice Foods Co. of Chicago. He will continue as president of the Wilmington branch, and is responsible for all the chemical operations of the company, in the United States.

A Swampscott resident, he has been with Beatrice Foods since 1965.

It was a Gr-r-r-and Opening

It was a week ago last Saturday. Walt's Dairy Shack, on Main Street, opened for business. The new ice cream stand is located just across the street from Dunkin Donuts, and is the property of Walter Godfrey. Assorted officials promised to be on hand for an official ribbon cutting ceremony, while the Town Crier took a photo.

That was the weekend of Hurricane Belle. The waters were falling. But Selectman Miceli and the Town Manager and a few assorted Chamber of Commerce types were on hand, their collars turned up against the rain. They smiled for the camera, too.

There was even one of the young ladies from Iowa, who are guests of the Wilmington Lions Club.

So what happened? Somewhere, in the Town Crier office, is a picture. Somewhere is a portrait of smiling people, with water running down their necks. Someday that picture will turn up - just when it is no longer needed.

Meanwhile, patrons at Walt's Dairy Shack can have a legitimate complaint. The place has never been 'officially' opened - and Walt cannot prove otherwise.

The power to destroy

Senator Ronald MacKenzie has been indicted by a Federal Grand Jury. It is an awkwardmbusiness. The senator is one of two accused of extortion from a New York firm.

It does not seem possible the senator will have his day in court until after the November elections. His opponent has issued a statement saying that he does not intend to make the indictment a part of the election process. But it is there, and it will hurt the senator.

Grand Jury proceedings are a part of the common law because of the history of Star Chamber proceedings. Men were hauled from their beds at midnight, to face accusers. The Grand Jury process supplanted that type of justice with one in which the accusations were by a jury of peers.

Over the centuries Grand Juries have been of service, but there are some who wonder at the wisdom of continuing. A criminal indictment, at a time of election is a case in point. It is not proof of guilt, but it can most probably be a cause of defeat.

Such was the case of Charles Gibbons, about 20 years ago. Mr. Gibbons, a man with an excellent reputation, a devoted servant of the public, had been nominated for the post of Governor of Massachusetts, when the indictment was made known. He lost the election.

Mr. Gibbons repeatedly asked to have a trial on the charges. It was in vain. He never was tried. He died a broken man.

The power to indict is the power to destroy, and one can hope that this does not happen to Senator MacKenzie.

Barbara Allen, who is serving in the Messenger Service, was recently presented with her 200 Hour volunteer pin by Mrs. Hollinshead, Director of Volunteer Services at the Winchester Hospital. Barbara is the daughter of Mr and Mrs Raymond Allen.

The Building Inspector

Tewksbury's Building Inspector received a reprimand, last week from his superiors, the Board of Selectmen. They seemed to feel he could be a little more judicious in the exercise of his powers and duties.

Building Inspectors, today, are almost state officials. They enforce state regulations which are changed from time to time by a state body. Their powers are more than used to be the case before the new building code. There were selectmen who felt that a Building Inspector should be a state rather than a town official.

It seems to be a matter of interpretation of the code. One of the questions hinged on whether a two foot contour plan was needed for a "plot plan" or if a 10 foot contour plan was sufficient. A superior to Tewksbury's inspector said that a 10 foot contour plan was sufficient.

There is an element of sophistication in this. Perhaps everyone can learn a little more - to give a little, and to take a little.

St. John's Hospital seminars on rape cases

St. John's Hospital, in Lowell, recently hosted a two hour seminar in an effort to share information on procedures to be followed in handling rape cases, and victims of rape. Mrs. John Dunleavy RN, hosted the seminar, with many police personnel, clergy and school nurses in attendance.

As a direct result of the seminar, members of the Tewksbury-Wilmington Lodge of Elks have voted to donate the two educational films shown at the seminar: "Rape: Problems in Proof, Part I" and "Rape: Providing the Proof, Part II."

Among the police personnel attending the seminar were men who are active members of the suburban Lodge who felt they should prevail upon the Elks membership to donate the films to the hospital as a community service. When the Elks programs resume in the fall, the films will be shown to the general club membership and their wives in an effort to acquaint the public with the serious consequences of rape.

The check presentation was made at an Appreciation Luncheon held at St. John's earlier this month and among the guests were three of the officers of the Tewksbury-Wilmington Lodge of Elks, Edward Carleton, the Ex-halted Ruler; Leonard Bagley and Al Parson; Wilmington Police Chief Paul J. Lynch and Sgt. Philip Bradanick of the Tewksbury Police Department.

Three hour MD drive collected $25

A group of youngsters, in a Muscular Dystrophy drive, on Mohawk Drive in Tewksbury, collected $25, in three hours. Then came rain and hail, to stop the fun. It was at the Napolitano home. The kids had the usual paraphenelia, and were dressed for the part - that was a big part of the fun. And oh - did that rain come down!

I SEE A PICTURE IN YOUR FUTURE: Debbie Napolitano was the fortune teller, and Janet Eldridge of Bow, N.H. listened to her reading of the crystal ball.

The first Moped

The Wilmington Town Crier, on August 12 had a picture of Sheldon Maga, riding a bicycle powered by a small gasoline motor. It is a relatively new idea, in that it is a manufactured produce, on sale locally (at the Cycle Shop). The story said that it was the first one in Wilmington.

Bill Babine, former Tree Warden of Wilmington had such a motor powered bicycle, many years ago.

Bill had a small bicycle repair shop in his garage, and in that repair shop he hitched a small motor and a bicycle together, and he used to go riding around town on it, or maybe one would say in it. The year was 1922.

All-star preview

South Boasts strong backfield

Next Tuesday night's greater Lowell All-Star football game should be a ground war between the high school squads.

The south squad, coached by Wilmington head man Fred Bellissimo, boasts a strong backfield headed by Chelmsford fullback John Baraldi; Tewksbury scatback Ricky Mackey, and Redmen quarterback Tommy Sullivan.

Baraldi and Mackey are two totally different runners. Baraldi, at 230 pounds, was moved from tackle to fullback last fall to bolster the Lion ground game. He complemented the outside bolts of Rick Esposito and Mike Mays as the Chelmsford offense was at its best against some of the tougher MVC teams.

Mackey and Sullivan were Tewksbury's most valuable and most improved players respectively in 1975. Mackey was the most exciting MVC back in years as his twisting, spinning runs saved many Redmen rallies. Sullivan was the object of some criticism his junior year, but bounced back as a senior to prove that he could run the TMHS offense smoothly.

The all-star game will be the ultimate test for Sullivan, but things should be easier for Tommy with the strong south backfield and tough all-star front.

The south squad is extremely deep in the backfield also.

Chelmsford's Mays, along with Wilmington's Jack Moran and Bob Aprile lend that needed depth.

Top south linemen include Redmen Paul Bradley and Mark Stephens along with Wildcat Gary McDonald.

The south will be looking to avenge last summer's 12 - 7 loss.

Coach Chet Steele's north squad is led by a mammoth defensive line that includes Dracut tackle Steve Notini. Notini has been elected one of the tri-captains along with linebacker Jamie Lamoureux of Ayer and tackle Bill Gikas of Lowell.

Also in that line is Dracut tackle Steve Miamis. Miamis and Notini were two of the best defensive linemen in the Merrimack Valley last fall. The north will be forced to trim 12 players from their squad by the end of this week. Contact has been emphasized in the north camp.

This game looks to be a war. The north has size and strength while the south may have the edge in speed and quickness. The south has the ability to put a lot of points on the scoreboard quickly. If the south scores first, look for them to win.

The program begins at 8 p.m. There will be pre-game punting, passing, and running contests. Baraldi will be the south's punter while Aprile will run the pre-game sprint.

At half-time there will be the usual All-Stardettes queen contest as the Notre Dame CYO band performs under the lights of Cawley Memorial Stadium.

The game marks the beginning of the area schoolboy football season.

Braves National champs

Maureen Mahoney took the big mound victory last week, hurling the Braves to a 10 - 5 victory over the Angels, becoming the National League champs in Tewksbury Girls Recreational Softball action.

Mo contributed three hits including two doubles to her own game. Diana Zabawa cracked a two run homer in the first inning and teammate Donna Whitney added a seventh inning homer with a pair of scattered doubles. The Braves received hitting power from catcher Julie Carroll who tripled and Kelley Casey scattering a pair of hits and defensively enacted a beautiful double play.

Kelley caught a hard hit ball quickly tagged second making the third out.

A fine team effort enabled the Braves to become first in their league.

Esposito plays with Falcons

Wilmington's Mike Esposito, according to the latest gossip, but former BC football star, will be in Boston this weekend, playing with the Atlanta Falcons. The game will be seen on TV.

Esposito will not be a starter.

Plan to refurbish fields

There is a plan currently in the developing stages to improve the condition of the Center School field and to provide more space for the High School's physical education classes.

Selectman William Hallisey originally suggested that all of the fields in the town should be taken care of by the town, but now it has been deemed more feasible for the town to look at the two big athletic problem areas - the Center School football field and gym space behind the High School. A town "take over" of these fields would mean that additional personnel for the park department would have to be hired. The board of selectmen will discuss the proposed project at this week's meeting.

Ed Early candidate Register of Deeds

Rep. Edward J. Early, Jr.

State Representative Edward J. Early, Jr., has announced his candidacy for Register of Deeds in the Northern Middlesex District. Early, a democrat, is the former Mayor of Lowell and served on the City Council from 1961 to 1970. During his term as Mayor, he was instrumental in having Lowell selected as one of the Model Cities in the United States, and was honored as being the City's Outstanding Young Man.

He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1972 and re-elected in 1974. During his two terms in the legislature, Early has been a strong opponent of the prison furlough program, and is presently a member of the Special Legislative Commission which has recommended restrictions on that program.

A graduate of Keith Academy, Boston College, and Suffolk University Law School, Early is an attorney with wide experience in the field of conveyancing and the operation of the Registry of Deeds. He is a member of various civic and fraternal organizations in the district, and resides with his wife, the former Theresa Molloy and their four children at 72 Belvidere Circle, LOWELL.

Durkin's challenge to radio debate

Fifth District Congressional candidate Roger P. Durkin has challenged incumbent Paul Tsongas to a series of four face-to-face debates, to be broadcast live on district-wide radio. Durkin is seeking cooperation of five radio stations in Lowell, Lawrence and Boston to provide air time on four alternate Sunday afternoons in September and October.

Cornerstone of the Durkin proposal will be creation of a non-partisan fund to pay engineering costs involved in the debates. Civic groups and private individuals would provide underwriting in the district-wide events.

Durkin has pointed to the dubious value of candidate-sponsored programs or special interest "Candidate's Nights" which in the past have been the main staples of campaigns for Congress, and asked all people in the district to join in a citizen's effort to open up the political process.

Lions Club visitors had a busy week

The summer guests of the Wilmington Lions Club had a busy time last week, once the hurricane had passed by. Representative Fred Cain took them in tow, for trips to and around Boston.

Monday there was the State House, the Bunker Hill Monument, and the Swan Boats in Boston Garden.

Tuesday there was Old Ironsides, and a tour of the Museum of Science.

Wednesday was a trip to the Museum of Fine Arts.

Thursday was sight seeing in Wilmington, with a pizza at Rocco's.

Friday everyone went to Boston, for a view of the Aquarium.

LIONS GUESTS AT ROCCO'S: Dawn Morris and Claudia Blakely, from Iowa, Lion Carl Davidson and Dergio Sbreafico of Milan, Italy sit across from Bif Gately, who has just returned from six weeks in Ontario, and Eileen Godfrey.

TOWN OF WILMINGTON

BOARD OF WATER AND SEWER COMMISSIONERS RULES AND REGULATIONS OF SEWER USE LEGAL NOTICE

At a duly authorized meeting of the Board of Water and Sewer Commissioners held the fifth day of August, 1976 it was voted to amend the Town of Wilmington Rules and Regulations of Sewer Use.

ARTICLE II, SECTION I as hereby amended reads as follows:

No unauthorized person shall uncover, make any connections with or open into, use, alter, or disturb any public sewer or appurtenance thereof without first obtaining a written permit from the Superintendent. Any person proposing a new discharge into the system or a substantial change in the volume or character of pollutants that are being discharged into the system shall notify the Superintendent at least forty-five (45) days prior to the proposed change or connection.

ARTICLE III, SECTION 9 as hereby amended reads as follows:

All measurements, tests, and analyses of the characteristics of waters and wastes to which reference is made in these Rules and Regulations shall be determined in accordance with the latest edition of "Standard Methods for the Examination of Water and Wastewater," published by the American Public Health Association, and shall be determined at the control manhole provided, or upon suitable samples taken at said control manhole.

In the event that no special manhole has been required, the control manhole shall be considered to be the nearest downstream manhole in the public sewer to the point at which the building sewer is connected. Sampling shall be carried out by customarily accepted methods to reflect the effect of constituents upon the sewage works and to determine the existence of hazards to life, limb, and property. (The particular analyses involved will determine whether a twenty-four (24) hour composite of all outfalls of a premise is appropriate or whether a grab sample or samples should be taken. Normally, but not always BOD and suspended solids analyses are obtained from 24-hour composites of all outfalls whereas pH's are determined from periodic grab samples).

(a) All industries discharging into a public sewer shall perform such monitoring of their discharges as the Superintendent and/or other duly authorized employees of the Town may reasonably require, including installation, use, and maintenance of monitoring equipment, keeping records and reporting the results of such monitoring to the Superintendent. Such records shall be made available upon request by the Superintendent to other agencies having jurisdiction over discharges to the receiving waters.

As hereby and above amended the Town of Wilmington Sewer Use Rules and Regulations shall remain in full force and effect.

Over 250 waiting for elderly housing

There are over 250 names on the Waiting List, at the Wilmington Housing Authority office, hoping to get apartments in the old age housing at Deming Way.

Congressman Paul Tsongas was shown the lists, Monday night, by WHA officials. He learned that most of the priority names were of individuals living in other cities - Chelsea, Revere, etc. He learned that the Massachusetts Department of Community Affairs now has a regulation which states in part "there shall be no discrimination against any applicant based on the fact of non-residency in the municipality where the application is filed."

The Congressman had spent over half an hour with residents of the project, assuring them that he was doing everything possible to get more Federal funds for housing, in his district.

TSONGAS LOOKS AT LIST: Of applicants for housing in the Deming Way project in Wilmington. Most of the names were from other towns and cities.

THE AUDIENCE: Interested elderly citizens, listen to Congressman Tsongas, Monday evening, at the WHA office building on Deming Way.
